Description

We have created a design that resembles a home that your grandfather might have built. Double columns atop brick pillars enhance the front covered porch. An open foyer leads through a great room with corner fireplace and built in media center. A formal Dining Room accesses the cozy hearth room and kitchen divided by a bar counter for additional seating. Also on the main floor are the Master Suite, an additional bedroom and a full bathroom. Foyer stairs lead up to a large bedroom with private bath as well as an optional bonus area.
