Description

The covered front porch of this southern traditional home warmly welcomes friends and family. Entering through the foyer, you'll notice the columns surrounding the formal dining room. Continue through to the hearth room and relax in front of the fireplace before dinner. The great room, which is always a wonderful place to gather has a built-in computer center. Spend quiet times in your master suite with access to the rear covered porch for those nights of star gazing. Traveling upstairs, children and guests are accommodated with their own bedrooms and an optional bonus game room.
