Description

MEN 5288

Aspen Bluff is a striking example of what a rustic getaway should be. Solid wooden columns pair with a metal covered porch, frame picture windows, and a natural wood front door to give curb appeal like no other. With lighting offered on the front porch, Aspen Bluff offers opportunity for both daylight enjoyment and after-dark relaxation. An open floor plan concept also provides ample space for both entertaining and spending time as a family. Beautiful vaulted ceilings compliment the upstairs sleeping loft, leading to the 2 upstairs bedrooms and full bathroom. A main level master suite offers both privacy and beautiful wrap-around views of your property. A main level kitchen is complimented by an eat-at island, a healthy amount of cabinet storage, and a connected dining area featuring the back entry leading to outdoor grilling porch at the back of the house.

Aspen Bluff is what rustic dreams are made of.

Open Floor Design

Heading straight in under the covered front porch, you're greeted with a beautiful staircase opening up into the great room. The great room of Aspen Bluff features luxurious vaulted ceilings, complemented by the upstairs loft overlooking the great room itself. Directly behind the great room, you'll find the eat-at kitchen island opening it to the spacious kitchen, complete with great cabinet storage and windows offering natural light all around. You'll also find the dining area connected, and views of the grilling porch and the back part of your property make this space perfect for family dinners.

Main Level Master Suite

Back to the front of the house on the other side of the beautiful staircase, you'll find the entry into the Main Level Master Suite. Aspen Bluff's Master Bedroom is nothing short of lavish with a ton of natural lighting. You'll also find a spacious master closet, perfect to house his and her clothing together in harmony. Directly beside the master closet, you'll find the entrance to the master bathroom. A single vanity is matched perfectly with a standing shower and free-standing bathtub. Another unique feature you'll find in Aspen Bluff is that the laundry area is also featured in the master bathroom, offering a great opportunity for your clothing items to never have to leave your master suite.

Upper Level Living

Head on up the stairs of Aspen Bluff and you'll find the spacious sleeping loft complimented by the sloped ceiling. To the left, you'll also find bedrooms 2 and 3, which feature their own walk in closets. In addition to the great closet space, you'll find the upstairs bathroom located between the two bedrooms, offering a vanity and private toilet and shower room combo. Natural lighting is also something that Aspen Bluff is nothing short of in the Upper Level Living.
