Description

MEN 5306

From award winning home designer Michael E. Nelson comes a new take on Craftsman Design. Inspired by rustic elements & wooden detail, Cedar Ridge might just be the Craftsman House Plan you've been waiting on. A covered front porch boasts of strong wooden and stone columns, while the stone and shaker exterior ties the rustic curb appeal together for the craftsman home. With over 3700 sq. ft. of space, this home is perfect for all of your entertaining needs.

Open Floor Design

Head on inside through the covered front porch and find yourself overwhelmed by the two story entryway, boasting of tall ceilings and rustic detail. An open study sits on the left side of the entryway, while the spacious dining room sits to the left. A beautiful staircase divides the two rooms, giving access to the great room, where you're met with tons of natural light, a stone fire place, and a great view of the semi-open kitchen concept. A large eat-at kitchen island offers great seating while preparing meals and entertaining. A large breakfast nook also offers tons of potential for guests and family.

Main Level Master Suite

Through the breakfast nook, you will find entry to the master suite, boasting a 10' boxed ceiling and tons of natural light as well. The master bathroom offers a double vanity, perfect for couples who prefer not to share a sink, along with a walk-in shower, private toilet room, and a beautiful free-standing tub. The spacious master closet also leads way back into the laundry room for easy access on laundry day.

Upper Level Living

Upstairs, you're greeted by an overwhelmingly spacious loft area perfect for your multipurpose home ideas. A large study or home theater option is located to the right, while down the hallway, you'll find another bedroom, home office, and optional bonus room over the garage.
