Description

This Nelson Design Group plan truly has something for every family member. Mom can enjoy movie night with friends in the great room, or she can spend some quiet time soaking in the master bath’s whirlpool tub. Dad will like to tinker around in the hobby room just off the four-car garage, or he can show off his grilling talents on the large rear deck. All of the kids will appreciate the privacy of their own rooms but will love spending time together in the large game room on the upper floor. Even guests will have something to talk about with the inclusion of a comfortable guest room. With this home, the possibilities are endless.
