Description

They giggled with delight as the fish began to nibble on their toes as they dipped their feet into the water. The children always loved the lazy summer days at Grandma's and Grandpa's cabin. They loved the early morning swims in River Bend's cool waters and the lemonade that Grandma served in the afternoons. What they especially enjoyed, was laying on the large flat rock that allowed the river's water to gently splash over its surface providing cool relief from the summer's heat. The days here at Table Rock would always be home to their fondest memories.
